Spirit of the Morning Press The Intelligence argues that the secession party of the Louisiana State Convention was in the mi nority, and that the majority of her people look with disfavor upon the present posture of aff irs. The Republican argues that the dissensions aiready exposed in the Southern Confederacy will finally tend to breek up their organization as they did the Federal Government, and that a firmer Union will be reconstructed.

THE CABINET NOT YET FINALLY MADE UP .-We feel confident that up to 10 p. m. last (Sunday) evening President Lincoln had not informed a living soul as to whom he designs offering the Cabinet portfolies, which the cabinet makers say, are to be tendered to Messrs. Chase, Blair and Suith. Up to midnight on Saturday night he was listening with great patience and profound attention to the representations of his friends on the subject, and doubtless more or less of them preached homilles to him yesterday upon the same theme, Sunday though it was. While he certainly had not offered a portfolio to either Mr. Chase, Mr. Blair or Mr. Smith up to ten o'clock last night we have no reason to believe that those gentlemen will not be selected. On the contrary, the signs of consultation, inquiry, &c., all point that way.

He (President Lincoln) avows that he will not make public his final determination in the premises until to-morrow, on nominating his council board to the Senate.

AN EMEUTE IN THE SENATE .- In the course of Benator Andrew Johnson's terrible onslaught of Saturday evening upon Senator Lane of Oregon, the galleries applauded, and an order to clear them having been given, the immense audience rose and gave three terrific cheers for Andrew Johnson, and three more for the star-spangled banner. The process of clearing them then took place, and the gallery doors were locked for the balance of their session of the evening. Such a scene never before cocurred in the Senate Chamber of the U.S. For some minutes mob law ruled as completely over its galleries as ever in Tam many Hal', New York.

MR. BUCHANAN was detained at the Senate till five minutes before 12 to-day, signing bills, &c. He has signed all passed, except a bill to amend the provision of the act to protect discoverers of guano islands.

Mr. Buchanan leaves Washington at 3.10 tomorrow afternoon, and stops in Baltimore till next day, at the private residence of Zenos Barnum, Esq. Leaves Baltimore at 8% Wednesday, and has a reception at York, Pa.; thence goes to Wheatland in the afternoon.

A UNION-PARTY MOVEMENT. - Several Demo erats in Congress (Messrs. Andrew Johnson, John Cochrane and others,) are to-day drawing up a manifesto, to be signed by as many leaders of all parties as will sign it. It is to be a pronunciamento forming the basis of an Union-party organization. From what we learn, it is likely to be a very temperate and moderate paper, designed to further action should be taken in the matter, the ization. From what we learn, it is likely to be a include in the proposed party all who approve the policy of compromise.

To-DAY, the Senate adopted, without amendment, the amendments to the Constitution proposed by Mr. Corwin, and adopted in the House a few days since. The announcement of the fact to the House elicited loud applause from members

MR. SHERMAN .- Those who are managing the anti-Chase case in the struggle for Cabinet places concentrated their efforts, on Saturday night, on the Hon. John Sherman, of Ohio.

UNFOUNDED .- We have no reason to place any credence in the statement telegraphed to the Bal-

BENATE.—After our report closed on Saturday—
The Senate took up the joint resolutions of the Committee of Five to amend the Constitution.
Mr. Lane made a speech, in which he denounced the peace propositions as a fraud and a cheat, and characterized the Southern Confederacy as the noblest in the world.

Mr. Johnson replied in a short but terrific speech, directing his remarks to Mr. Lane. Applause in the galleries caused them to be re-

The propositions of the Peace Congress were then taken up. After a protracted debate, without coming to any vote upon the propositions, the Senate adjourned till Sunday night at 7 o'clock.

Sunday Night .- Mr. Sumner presented the petition of 5,000 citizens of Massachusetts, praying Congress not to alter the Constitution nor to make Mr Crittenden, Mr. Trumbull, Mr. Baker, and

Mr. Douglas then addressed the Senate. Hotse -After our report closed Saturday-Mr. Dawes reported a resolution from the select committee of five on the President's message of Jan 8, censuring the Secretary of the Navy for Jan 8, censuring the Secretary of the Navy for accepting the resignations of those who were interested in the secession of the Southern States; which resolution was passed.

Mr Phelps moved the following resolution;

The Indian appropriation bill was then taken up; and after some debate the House adjourned till 10 o'clock on Monday.

After further debate, all amendments were voted down and the question taken on the House (Corwin) resolutions straight resulting year 24, The Chair decided that 24 was two-thirds within the meaning of the Constitution, and the Senate sustained the decision—yeas 33, nays 1.

The Crittenden propositions was then taken up. Mr. Clark's amendment thereto was disagreed to-yeas 15, nays 22.

Mr. Crittenden moved the Peace Conference proposition as a substitute for his own plan, the motion was lost, yeas 7, nays 28

Other propositions were made, and the general subject was changed by Messrs. Wigfall, Pugh, Gwin, and ethers. Mr Bright moved to go into executive session;

And at 7 o'clock this morning the Senate took The Senate reassembled at 10 o'clock.

Mr. Clark moved to take up the bill for the in-eorporation of the Metropolitan Gas Company, the pending question being a motion to reconsider, on which no quorum voted.

After considerable time a quorum voted, and the Metropolitan Ges Bill was taken up. The Senate then took up and passed a joint res-cution to correct certain cierical errors in the Miorrill tariff bill.

A private bill was passed for the relief of Bloom-field College; also, a bill to protect certain guano discoveries of American citizens. The Senate then resumed the consideration of the Metropolitan gas bill.

Pending the subject, House resolution appointing a committee to wait on the Presidenat and inform him that both Houses were ready to adjourn, was agreed to.

Mr. Bright favored a reconsideration of the bill and spoke until (at 12 o'clock) the Thirty-Sixth Congress expired. The Vice President, in a neat address, took leave of the Senate, and then administered the oath to Mr. Hamiin, the new Vice President. Extra Session of the Senate.

Vice President Hamlin took the Chair and called the Senate to order. The Clerk read the proclamation of the President convening the new Senate. The new Senators were sworn in by the Vice

A message was received from the President of the United States, announcing that he had signed a bill relative to the Postal Service, a bill established the value of Austrian Floring and a bill

Also, a message from the Senate announcing the adoption of the Corwin Constitutional amend RMr. Gochrane called up a bill regulating the compensation of the District Attorneys and Clerks of the District and Circuit Courts of the United States. After much confusion, persed.

Mr. Sherman moved to reconsider the vote and lay the bill on the table, as it added $50,000 a year to the expenses of the Government. Agreed to.

Mr. Niblack presented the report of the Committee of Conference on the disagreeing votes on the Senate amendments to the bill for the promotion of the useful arts, and after much excitement the bill passed.

Mr. Sherman, rising to a priviceged question, reported that the committee appointed to wait on the President had done their duty, and stated that Mr. Buchanan informed them that he had no further official communication to make to that body.

The bour of twelve o'clock having arrived, the Speaker bid farewell to the House in a brief and eloquent speech. He was in favor of conceding every constitutional compromise, and strongly expressed his devotion to the Union and his thankfulness for the noble stand taken by the border States. His remarks were received with perfect silence by the House, broken only by occasional demonstrations of applause, whenever he referred to his desire and intentions with regard to the perpetuation of the Union.

The House then adjourned; when three hearty cheers were given by the members for the Union.

EXCITEMENT AT NORFOLK .- Some excitemen was occasioned at Norfolk, Friday night, by the calling out by the authorities of detachments of the military force of that city. The movement was intended to be precautionary to certain insurrectionary designs, indicated in a letter picked up in Petersburg, signed by Race Slayter, a negro resident of Norfolk, and addressed to a negro carpenter in the former city, one Tone Scott, President of "The Sons of Liberty." The police made diligent search for the writer of the letter, but failed to find him. The military were on guard from midnight on Friday until 7 o'clock the succeeding members. ceeding morning.

Minutes of a Meeting of the Commissioners appointed by act of Congress approved March 3d, 1859, to purchase a site and construct a Building thereon for the uses of a Post Office and Court House in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., held at the office of Construction of the Treasury Department on the 28th day of February, A. D. 1861.

Treasury; Hon. Horatio King, Postmaster General; Hon. Edwin M. Stanton, Attorney General.

The meeting having been called at the request of the Secretary of the Treasury, to inspect the Bids for the Construction of the Philadelphia Post Board first proceeded to ascertain the available balance in the Treasury for the Construction of the Building. This was reported by the Acting Engineer in charge to be Forty Thousand dollars (40,000); and that in addition to this available balance of $40,000 the Commissioners were autho rized to use the proceeds of sale of the lot heretofore purchased of the Pennsylvania Bank, which by act of Congress approved June 23d, A. D. 1860, was authorized to be sold at public auction, provided it could be sold at not less than one hundred and ten thousand dollars, ($110,000), making an available aggregate of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, ($150,000), after the Bank lot should be sold in accordance with the act of Con-comply with your bid, as this is an element in the matter which was not before you when the bid was submitted; but such a refusal, or a neglect to file your answer hereto, by or before the first day of March will be considered and treated as a withdrawal of your bid for the work.

Very respectfully, S. M. CLARK, Act'g Engineer in charge Treasury Dep't. Upon inspection of the various acts of Congress referring to the purchase of a lot and construc-tion of a building for a Post Office and Court fiouse in the city of Philadelphia, and of the facts in the case, the Board are of opinion: First, That they have no power to impose such a condition upon the bidders as was specified in the above circular—inasmuch as no mention ever had been made in the proposals for the work of such a condition; and to make a contract with any such condition would be making a different contract from that which had been specified in the proposals, and would be unwarranted by law. The Circular must therefore be rescinded.

Second, That they had no right to make a contract, involving a larger expenditure than the available balance of the appropriation, and the amount to be received from the sale of the Pennsylvania Bank; and that, until the sale of the property should determine the amount which the work shall cost, they ought not to enter into any centract whatever; and that they had no right to dispose of the lot otherwise than by public auc-

Third, That the lowest bid exceeds the balance in the Treasury, and the amount for which the Pennsylvania Bank was authorized to be sold. There was therefore no bid which the Board would feel authorized to accept, even if the lot had been sold at the minimum price fixed by law. Fourth, That the plan upon which the proposals were issued is estimated to cost more to construct and complete than the combined amounts of the available appropriation in the Treasury, and the minimum price fixed for the sale of the Pennsylvania Bank, and it appears from official documents presented to the Board, that the plans were prepared under written instructions directing the Acting Engineer in charge not to confine himself, in estimating for the work, to the appropriations for the purpose, but to estimate for one of such a character as is called for by the growth and Northwest.

Master of Transportation. and complete than the combined amounts of the tions for the purpose, but to estimate for one "of such a character as is called for by the growth and future wants of the city without reference to the appropriations "

First. That they are not authorized by law to award the contract to any of the Bidders, and that new proposals will be required before any contract can be made. Second. That no new proposals can be made ustil the Pennsylvania Bank shall be sold, and the amount of proceeds applicable to the construction of the Building ascertained.

Therd. That under existing laws the plan must be made so that the whole amount to be expended in the construction of the Building shall not exceed the balance of the amount received from the sale of the said lot and the available balance of the appropriation, that being, in the judgment of the Board, an express requirement of the act of Ordered, That the minutes of these proceedings be 'printed, and a copy thereof be furnished to each of the bidders; and also be published in one paper printed in the city of Philadelphia, and in one paper printed in the city of Washington.

GEORGETOWN.

Correspondence of The Star.

GEORGETOWN, March 4, 1961. The notice in Saturday's Star, of the repast to to be furnished that evening to the friends of the "Union ticket," drew together on the corner of high and Gay sts. a large number of the "free and independent." At "sharp eight" the door was opened, and then "such a gittin" up stairs we never did see." When the room was filled to repletion (and we never say so many in the bell pletion, (and we never saw so many in that hall at a speech making,) Mayor-elect Addison took the head of the table, and in his usual dignified and courteous manner made a few introductory remarks, stating that Mr. John Lang had furnished the supper, without any profit to himself, and they might now help themselves; which they proceeded to do without needing a second bidding. Each "lean and hungry Cassius" vied with the Each "lean and hungry Cassius" vied with the oily "Faistaffs" in playing "a pretty knife and fork," and in a short time every "vestige of (Mr. Lang's) creation" had vanished. They did their work as completely as they did on election day;

and that is saying a great deal.

The funeral of Mr. Samuel Rainey was attended The funeral of Mr. Samuel Rainey was attended yesterday afternoon by the Young Catholic's Friend Society, the pupils of Trinity Church Benevolent School, and a large number of relatives and friends. The body was taken to Telnity (Catholic) Church, where the funeral ceremony was performed, and a sermon preached by the Rev. John Early, President of Georgetown College. The deceased was interred in the College burial ground.

Our City Councils met this morning at half past 8 o'clock. The Roard of Aldermen convened in Pickrell and Godey, who were absent. A committee was then appointed to wait on Mayor elect Addison and request his attendance. They performed that duty and Mr. Addison soon presented himself and was inaugurated. He said it was not his purpose to make a speech; he would only say that if his election is contested this time, the Councils would have to pay the expense [Laughter]. The would have to pay the expense. [Laughter] The joint convention then dissolved, and the Board of Common Council proceeded to organize. Mr. Tenney was called to the chair. On the first ballot Anthony Hyde, Esq., was elected President. The Board then proceeded to ballot for a Clerk; when Mr. Thomas Jewell was elected on the first ballot. TELEGRAPHIC. North Carolina Election.

[Special Dispatch.]
RALEIGH, N. C., March 3, 1861.—Editor of the Star : Sufficient returns of the recent election have reached here to permit us to assure you that North Carolina's proposition to hold a convention has been voted down by from three to five thousand majority. In the choice of delegates-in case the convention has been ordered—the disunionists are badly beaten-very badly. A large majority of those chosen stand precisely where the anti-secon sionists of the Virginia Convention stand.

Missouri State Convention. ST. Louis, Feb. 28.—Dispatches to the Demo-crat say the State Convention met at Jefferson city, at eleven o'clock this morning. Judge Orr called the Convention to order. Judge Hamilton R. Gamble, of St. Louis, was elected temporary Chairman, and J. L. Miner, of Cois, temporary Becretary.

Committees on Credentials and Permanent Organization were appointed, when, it being found that only seventy-five members were present, the Convention adjourned to ten o'clock to-morrow.

After the permanent organization is effected, the Convention will probably adjourn to St. Louis, the Mercantile Library Hall being tendered.

for that purpose.

The news of the adjournment of the Peace Con ference and the passage of Mr. Corwin's proposi-tions, produced a pleasant effect upon the mem-bers. Ex-Governor Sterling Price will probably be the permanent President. Sr. Louis, March 2 .- In the State Convention yesterday, the motion to table the motion to recor yesterday, the motion to table the motion to reconsider the vote by which the resolution requiring the members to take oath to support the Constitution of the United States and of the State of Missouri was adopted, was lost—yeas 65, nays 30. The members qualified in the afternoon, and the Convention was permanently organized by the election of ex-Governor Sterling Price as President, and S L. Low as Secretary.

The President laid before the Convention a communication from Luther J. Glenn, announcing himself as Commissioner from Georgia. The ing himself as Commissioner from Georgia. The communication was laid on the table and the Convention adjourned.

The Virginia Convention RICHMOND, March 2 -Mr. Goode, of Mecklen-burg, this morning concluded his speech com-menced yesterday. He criticised the Peace Conderence propositions very sharply.

Mr. Goode, of Bedford, introduced the following resolution:

Whereas the powers delegated by Virginia to the Federal Government have been perverted to ber injury and oppression; and whereas the moderate and reasonable demands known as the Crittenden propositions, the essential modifications presented by the General Assembly as a final effort to restore the integrity of the Union, have been deliberately rejected by the Northern confederates:

Resolved, That every consideration of duty in terest, honor, and patriotism requires that an ordinance be adopted by the Convention and submitted to the people, by which Virginia will resume all the powers delegated to the Federal Government, and declare her connection with that Government dissolved

The resolution was referred. Mr. Fisher presented anti-coercion resolutions, embodying and suggesting that the General Government should early negotiate with the Confederate States for the transfer of Forts Sumter and Pickens to said Confederacy, and for an equitable division of public property and burdens. This was also referred. There is no present prospect of any agreement to a report by the Committee on Federal Relations.

From California. FORT KEARNEY, March 3 .- The pony express has arrived here with additional news from California. There has been no election for Senator. Ineffectual attempts had been made to fix the day. The Douglasites had held a caucus. Mr. Denver received 17 votes; Mr. Nugent received 10; Mr. Randolph 12; Mr. McDougal 15. Mr. Parker, United States Consul at Honolulu, had arrived at that place. North Carolina Election RALEIGH, March 3 - Returns from 47 counties show the election of 48 Union and 25 Secession delegates. The majority against the Convention is, so far, about 8,000. Governor Reed has been beaten in Rockingbam county. The majority against the Convention will be decreased and Slave Rescue in New York. NEW YORK, March 3—A negro man named John Polhemus, belonging to Mr. Jameson, of Lewisburg, Va, was yesterday rescued from the United States Marshal just as he was going on board the steamer Yorktown. The Marshal bad ne warrant.
